

Bruneau Planning Unit
Condition of Riparian Areas on Streams
Riparian Map 1

- ### Map Legend
- Riparian Function
- Proper Functioning Condition
  - Functioning at risk with upward trend
  - Functioning at risk with static trend
  - Functioning at risk with downward trend
  - Not functioning
  - Not rated
- Towns
- Allotment Boundaries
- Bruneau Resource Area Boundary
- Duck Valley Indian Reservation Boundary
- Hydrologic Subbasin
- Bruneau
  - C.J. Strike Reservoir
  - Jordan
  - Middle Snake-Succor
  - Upper Owyhee

Streams are in proper functioning condition when adequate vegetation are present relative to the soils, geology, and hydrologic characteristics of an area to minimize habitat degradation during fairly frequent (25-30 year intervals) flood events.

Produced by: Sam M. Siachen

